WHO SAYS?

UNLEARNING
5 THINGS
THAT MIGHT BE HOLDING YOU BACK

AN ALL-CHURCH JOURNEY
BEGINNING JANUARY 19 & 20

Over the years you have learned little bits of wisdom that have become part of the way you think. Some of these are wise, others are quirky. Some are... Can we say it? Wrong.

Who Says? will create the space and conversation to help you think through what you believe and why you believe it. Using the Bible as the ultimate check for our thinking, these sessions will help clarify WHAT WE BELIEVE and WHY WE BELIEVE IT.

Get ready to have some fun, enjoy great conversation, and to break free from things that might be holding you back!

GRAB SOME FRIENDS
AND DO IT TOGETHER

Starting a group is easy!
In fact, it is as easy as G.R.O.W.

- GRAB your study guide ($10) at any lobby after a weekend service
- RECRUIT some friends, family or co-workers to do the study with you
- OPEN your calendar and pick a weekly time
- WALK through Who Says? together starting Jan. 19

LIFE GROUPS

Life is better done together. God not only loves community, He exists as community: Father, Son and Spirit. God made it possible for you to experience life with Him and life with His people.

FIND A LIFE GROUP

Life Groups are a great place to connect with others to grow in your relationship with God through studying the Bible, investing in authentic relationships and caring for each other through prayer. The primary filter we use is life stage: Young Adults (age 18-29), Adults (age 30-54) and 55+ (age 55 and older). In each life stage we have singles, mixed, married, men's and women's groups.

CAN I START A GROUP?

Absolutely! We would love to help you start a group with a few of your friends. We will train and equip you to lead and help you get up and going. Once you are trained, it's as easy as G.R.O.W.

- Grab the materials
- Recruit a few friends
- Open up your calendar

SERVING STORIES

We talked with Ryan Zoz who serves in the Vineyard's High School ministry and Young Adults as a leader and worship team member. Here's what he had to say about serving and how it has made a difference in his life.

What do you like best about serving?

I love music; It's brought my family and I so much joy, and I love to worship. Some people can really feel God in prayer or in the Word. I do too, but there's something about music and worshiping that allows me personally to have that intimate conversation with God. Serving in the music ministry at church has been a generational role that my family has filled long before I was born.

How did you get started in this serving role?

I started playing drums in church when I was about 8 or 9 with my dad and sister. But my serving at the Vineyard is all Chris Stehm's fault! [Chris is the worship leader for Vineyard Students]. Two years ago he found out that I played the drums and continually pushed me to play, but I never thought I was good enough because I hadn't played in many years. Then one day he called and said he was desperate, and with much coercing, convinced me to play again. What he didn't tell me was that, my first Sunday playing in two years, he wasn't even going to be there, but that's how I came to serve at VCC.

How has serving others impacted your life?

My closest friends have come through serving at the Vineyard. One of my greatest joys is to watch and experience worship with those around me. And I always get an overwhelming sense of excitement when people experience the music we play in church the same way I do. One way this impacts me is when I am up on stage playing; I get this image of God using the abilities He gave me to further His kingdom. We're called to be the hands and feet of Jesus, and that's something I constantly pray for—it's amazing every time I go up there to play because He answers it.

Thanks for sharing your story, Ryan! Are you interested in serving at the Vineyard? Check out vineyardcincinnati.com/here.
