PRICING

Quoted tour prices include planning, handling and operational charges, and are based on the current rate of exchange and tariffs. In the event of a marked change in foreign exchange rates, fuel costs or tariff rates, tour costs are subject to revision. Such increases will be added to the client's final billing. Revive Trips reserves the right to vary itineraries and prices, and to substitute facilities and hotels of equal or better quality if necessary.

DEPARTURE TAXES, SECURITY FEES, FUEL CHARGES, BAGGAGE FEES

When purchasing air transportation from Revive Trips, various taxes, fuel charges, and airport fees are included in the air ticket expense. Such fees may be subject to increase by governments and/or airlines and will be the responsibility of the client at any time. Baggage weight, size restrictions and fees may change and are the responsibility of the client. Passengers wishing to cancel and or change their air reservation may be subject to cancellation penalties.

Please Note: We do not have the ability to assign seating for flights. Seat assignments will be done at airport check in. All taxes, fuel charges and security fees are subject to change based on the ticketing date.

Airfares quoted by Revive Trips are special fares and cannot be combined with other promotional offers. Airlines involved in tours are not responsible for any act, omission or event during the time passengers are not on board their planes or conveyances. Revive Trips is not responsible for unforeseen flight delays, charges due to changes required during political unrest, or schedule changes imposed by the airlines. Air schedules may be subject to change at the discretion of the airline.

AIRLINE SECURITY

It is the passenger's responsibility to provide valid identification in the form of a passport or other required identification at the time of airport check-in.

TOUR PARTICIPATION

Because most of our tour sightseeing schedules require tour members to walk at a moderate pace, we cannot accept persons who need assistance. The Tour Director retains the right to require non-mobile persons to stay behind when deemed necessary. Additionally, any member displaying disruptive behavior, endangering fellow members and/or interfering with the operations of the tour may be asked to leave the tour.

PROOF OF US CITIZENSHIP, PASSPORT, VISA & MINOR CHILDREN REQUIREMENTS

Minors traveling with either one parent or no parents must have a certified letter of permission from the parent or parents who is/are not traveling. This letter must be presented at airport check-in. All international tours require a current passport. Entrance to Israel requires your passport be valid for 6 months after your return date. Your passport number must be recorded by a Revive Trips agent when making your reservation. Names on airline tickets must appear as shown on passport. Photocopies are not acceptable forms of identification. Non U.S. Citizens are responsible to fulfill appropriate entry requirements of the destination countries. Contact the local consulate of the country or countries you intend to visit for information.

RESPONSIBILITY AND LIABILITY

Revive Trips, and the participating Tour Operators operate the land tours offered under this program only as agents of the railroads, car rental contractors, steamship lines, hotels, bus operators, sightseeing contractors and others which provide the actual land arrangements and are not liable for any act, omission, delay, injury, loss or damage or non-performance occurring in connection with these land arrangements. International or domestic air carriers and other IATA carriers, steamship lines or other transportation companies whose services are featured in these tours are not to be held responsible for any act, omission or event during the time passengers are not on board their conveyance. The passengers contract in use by these companies when issued shall constitute the sole contract between the companies and the purchaser of these tours and/or passengers. The tour operator reserves the right to change the itinerary, delete or substitute sites when tour operator feels it to be in the best interest of the tour. Revive Trips does not provide additional assistance to any passengers that have physical or mobility limitations, as tour itineraries require full mobility. Revive Trips is not responsible for any losses or damages of personal property, injuries, thefts or unforeseen expenses incurred by any tour member.

TRAVEL INSURANCE - AVAILABLE FOR ALL PASSENGERS

Revive Trips strongly suggests purchasing Trip Cancellation insurance. Be sure to check with your healthcare provider as most U.S. medical coverage will not cover you outside of the country. Insurance costs are based on the total tour cost and the age of the insured. Travel Guard Travel Insurance is the recommended provider of Revive Trips.

TOUR OF ISRAEL

11 Day Inspirational Tour | September 24 – October 4, 2019

Day 1: Departure from US (Tuesday, September 24)

Depart in the afternoon to fly through the night to Tel Aviv, Israel.

Day 2: Arrive Israel (Wednesday, September 25)

We arrive at Ben Gurion Airport where we will be met by our Israeli transport. We immediately travel northward to our hotel for one night in the coastal area at Netanya. The remainder of the day is free to walk along the Mediterranean coastline, relax, and have dinner. The time is right for a personal devotional with the sunset over the "Great Sea." Enjoy a time of prayer of thanks for safety and the special blessings ahead, a prayer for the people of this land, and a good night's rest.

Day 3: Caesarea, Mt. Carmel, Mt. Arbel (Thursday, September 26)

After breakfast, we travel by private motor coach along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea to Caesarea, where Gentiles first heard the Good News from Peter and were baptized. We'll see the Roman Amphitheatre and aqueduct, before journeying on to Mt. Carmel, where Elijah challenged King Ahab and the prophets of Baal. Next we travel to Mount Arbel, where there is a vista of the Sea of Galilee—a great place to spend some devotional time looking down on the Sea. It is believed it was on Mount Arbel that Jesus gave the Great Commission to His disciples (Matthew 28:16-20). We will have dinner and overnight lodging for the next three nights in the Tiberias area on the Sea of Galilee.

Day 4: Tel Dan, Caesarea Philippi, Gamla Fortress (Friday, September 27)

We visit the place where the tribe of Dan set up a false altar and a golden calf. We also visit Caesarea Philippi, the place where Jesus took His disciples and asked them, "Who do men say that I am?" (Mark 8:27). We also visit the Gamla Fortress. Gamla is often called the Masada of the north because of the Roman siege during the Jewish Revolts. Time permitting, we visit Kursi, the place where Jesus cast out the Legion demon (Mark 5:1-20).

Day 5: Capernaum, Beatitudes, Tabgha, Galilee Cruise (Saturday, September 28)

This morning we visit the synagogue in Capernaum, and have a devotional down by the waterside. Next, we go to the Mount of Beatitudes and walk down the path along the side of the Church of Beatitudes. Following our visit, we have lunch before visiting Tabgha, the place of the feeding of five thousand, as well as a devotional down by the beach where Jesus confronted Peter after his three-time denial. We enjoy a relaxing cruise on the Sea of Galilee. Worship and a brief scripture reading and devotional on board brings to life the experiences of Jesus and the fishermen disciples concluding a wonderful day.

Day 6: Baptism, Jordan Valley, Gilgal Argaman, Dead Sea (Sunday, September 29)

Early morning baptism on the Jordan River at Yardenit. From there we go to the spring of Harod, the place where Gideon chose his 300 men to fight the Midianites. We will spend time by the edge of the water, considering the part that we also play in the army of God. We then go on to the site of Gilgal Argaman, the place of the rolling away of Israel's reproach, also the place where the Captain of the Lord told Joshua to take off his shoes on the holy ground. Possible visit to Jericho to visit Elisha's Spring and the tree of Zacchaeus. We continue south to our lodging at Ein Bokek for a relaxing evening at the Dead Sea—the lowest place on earth. This is a spa hotel for those who would like a massage before a float on the Dead Sea before dinner.

Day 7: Masada, Ein Gedi, Model of Jerusalem (Monday, September 30)

This morning we visit Masada, the stronghold of King David, and the place that held out against the Romans after the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A.D. We then spend time at the springs of Ein Gedi and visit the caves where David hid from Saul. Afterwards we go up to Jerusalem, possibly viewing the city from the Haas Promenade, the view of Mount Moriah that Abraham would have seen when he came to offer Isaac. We also visit the Israel Museum and our guide will explain the terrain of Jerusalem in the time of Herod as we view a model of the city. In the evening, for those not too tired, we'll take a walk down to the Western Wall.

Day 8: Southern Steps, Temple Mount, Western Wall, Jewish Quarter (Tuesday, October 1)

Watch the video production about Herod's Temple at the Davidson Center, before taking time at the Southern Steps leading up to the Temple Mount, knowing that Jesus would have ascended to the Temple on these steps. From there we go up to the Temple Mount before going to the Western Wall Plaza for a time of prayer at the wall. We will have lunch in the Jewish Quarter and walk along the Cardo and shop for souvenirs.

Day 9: Upper Room, City of David, Hezekiah's Tunnel, Abraham's Tent (Wednesday, October 2)

This morning we visit the Upper Room, the place believed to be where the disciples ate the Last Supper, and also the place where the Holy Spirit came. From there we go to the church of St Peter in Gallicantu, the church believed to be built over the ruins of the High Priest's palace, the place where Peter three times denied the Lord, and where Jesus was held before trial. Afterwards, we enjoy a camel ride and travel down to "Abraham's Tent" where we will enjoy a wonderful meal together prepared in a traditional style. We then return to the City of David and go down to the Gihon Spring and walk through Hezekiah's Tunnel to the Pool of Siloam.

Day 10: Mount of Olives, Garden of Gethsemane, Via Dolorosa, Holy Sepulcher & Garden Tomb (Thursday, October 3)

We check out of our hotel this morning and visit the top of the Mount of Olives and view the Temple Mount and the city of Jerusalem below. Walk down the Mount of Olives as Jesus did He when they welcomed Him into the city, laying palm fronds down before him as He entered Jerusalem on a donkey. We visit the Garden of Gethsemane, taking time to pray and meditate on Jesus' last hours in the garden before He was arrested. From there we will walk up through Lion Gate, otherwise known as St. Stephens Gate, the place where he was martyred, to visit the Pool of Bethesda. It was here that the paralyzed man was healed by Jesus in John 5. Afterwards we will worship for a short while in St. Anne's church where we can enjoy the incredible acoustics while singing with others from all around the world. We will then walk the Via Dolorosa, the Way of Suffering, to the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Lunch and shopping in the Arab Bazaars. From there we will walk to the Garden Tomb for Communion, worship and prayer as we visit the empty tomb of Jesus. Dinner before flight at the Messianic Kibbutz, known at Yad HaShomona. In the evening, we say our "goodbyes" as we head down to the Tel Aviv Airport to catch our flight home.
